15. The art work might be used by St. Lawrence High School and partners for exhibition and promotion of peace through sport around the world.
16. Organizers and partners reserve the right to request your original artwork or talk to the student via Skype. Non-compliance to this rule will be a disqualification of your entry.

17. The event will be judged by a panel who will allot marks individually to each participant on a score sheet under the following heads:-

- If the submitted artwork conformed to the theme of the competition.
- If the theme was interpreted creatively.
- Originality of the work submitted.
- Quality of the painting and if medium has been put to maximum use.
- If the art work impacts the viewer in relation to the theme.
- The painting should be representative of the artist's creativity.
- Composition and design of the painting is an important criteria.

Note: The quality of the images submitted will also play a role in the judging process. It is best if the images submitted are no smaller than 600 px.
